"Groundwork" Programming

October 10 – "Living the Good Life Together"

Our study of Galatians shows us that in Christ we are set free. But what does this freedom look like for the body of Christ, his church?

October 17 – "The Church, It's Not What it Used to Be"

Have you ever sat in church, looked around you, and thought "Things sure have changed"? This program begins a series looking at the biblical nature of the Church.

October 24 – "The One, Fractured Church"

A critic would point out that the 'one' church isn't one. It's fractured beyond belief. So what does it mean to speak of the unity of the church? Special guest Peter Borgdorff joins the conversation to discuss Ephesians 4 and what it means to confess the church is 'one.'

October 31 – "The Holy, Sinful Church"

Some people can't stand the church because they say it's full of hypocrites. So does it make sense to say a community of sinners is the holy church?

November 7 – "Picking a Church in a Buyer's Market"

Sometimes looking for a new church can seem a bit like looking at a bowl of alphabet soup. What does it all mean and how do you pick just one?

*Thank you for sharing with your parishioners that Groundwork is broadcast at
